

Quarterly Newsletter

March 2017

The Clinician's Corner

Case: Vertebral Artery Dissection

In this case, we present an incredible day-by-day progression from the moment of onset of a vertebral artery dissection as told by the emergency physician who experienced it.

Read Now

Download PDF

Download Audio Review

↑ 53%
Accuracy of Appropriately
Triageing High-Risk Patients

Download Case Study

Case Study

Improving Consistency of Triage Competency

A large integrated non-profit Catholic health system sought to implement a proactive loss prevention program to prevent adverse events.

This case study outlines the deployment of the RSQ® Solutions - Triage Education & Assessment Programs to realize significant improvements in the accuracy of appropriately triaging high-risk patients.

Download Now

Upcoming Webinars

Training Staff for Adverse Events

Join Doug Wojcieszak, SorryWorks! Founder, as he explores best practices for preparing staff to handle an adverse event.

Thursday, March 23 - 1 pm ET

In this webinar, you'll learn the:

- Importance of communication & resolution.
- Ways to prepare staff for difficult conversations.
- Processes to implement a program.

Register Now

Avoidable Readmissions vs. Death After Discharge

Dr. Tom Syzek explores the powerful pressures on a healthcare system caught between reducing admissions & avoiding death after discharge.

Tuesday, April 11 - 1 pm ET

In this webinar, you will learn the:

- Implications of policies designed to reduce unnecessary hospital admissions.
- Patients & conditions at highest risk.
- Link between errors & unanticipated deaths.

Register Now

From the Blog

The Ultimate Risk Management Strategy: 4 Key Areas for Allocating Your Risk Management Budget

Based on years of experience with both small and large health systems, we have identified 4 key areas an organization should consider when developing its loss prevention strategy.

Read the Ultimate Strategy

RSQ® Solutions Spotlight

MPIE's Margaret Curtin Provides Insight into Risk Management's Role in 2017

We asked Michigan Professional Insurance Exchange's Vice President of Risk and Client Services, Margaret Curtin, to share her insight on being successful in the industry and on the direction of the industry.

Read the Interview

LIKE THIS CONTENT?
SUBSCRIBE TO THE BLOG

SUBSCRIBE

Let's Connect

The Sullivan Group

rsqnews@thesullivangroup.com
thesullivangroup.com